

Washington State
Developmental Disabilities Council
Partnering with People with Developmental Disabilities to Build Better Lives

No Paid Services Caseload Survey
Developmental Disabilities Service System Task Force

Ed Holen
Executive Director
Washington State Developmental Disabilities Council
September 25, 2012

Persons with DD in Washington State

*Approximately 100,000 persons have an intellectual/developmental disability, per prevalence rates

Number of DDD Clients by Caseload Type Between 2004 and 2011

Person Completing the Survey

670 Completed Surveys
Report Completed Jan. 2012

Age of Person with DD

Are there services you need now?

670 Respondents

Top Ten: Self-Identified Needs (NPS Survey)

Which of these other services and supports do you (or your family member) receive?

Do you get enough information about services and supports to help plan for what you (or your family member) needs?

*670 Respondents

No -Not Getting Enough Information

Where would you want to get this information?

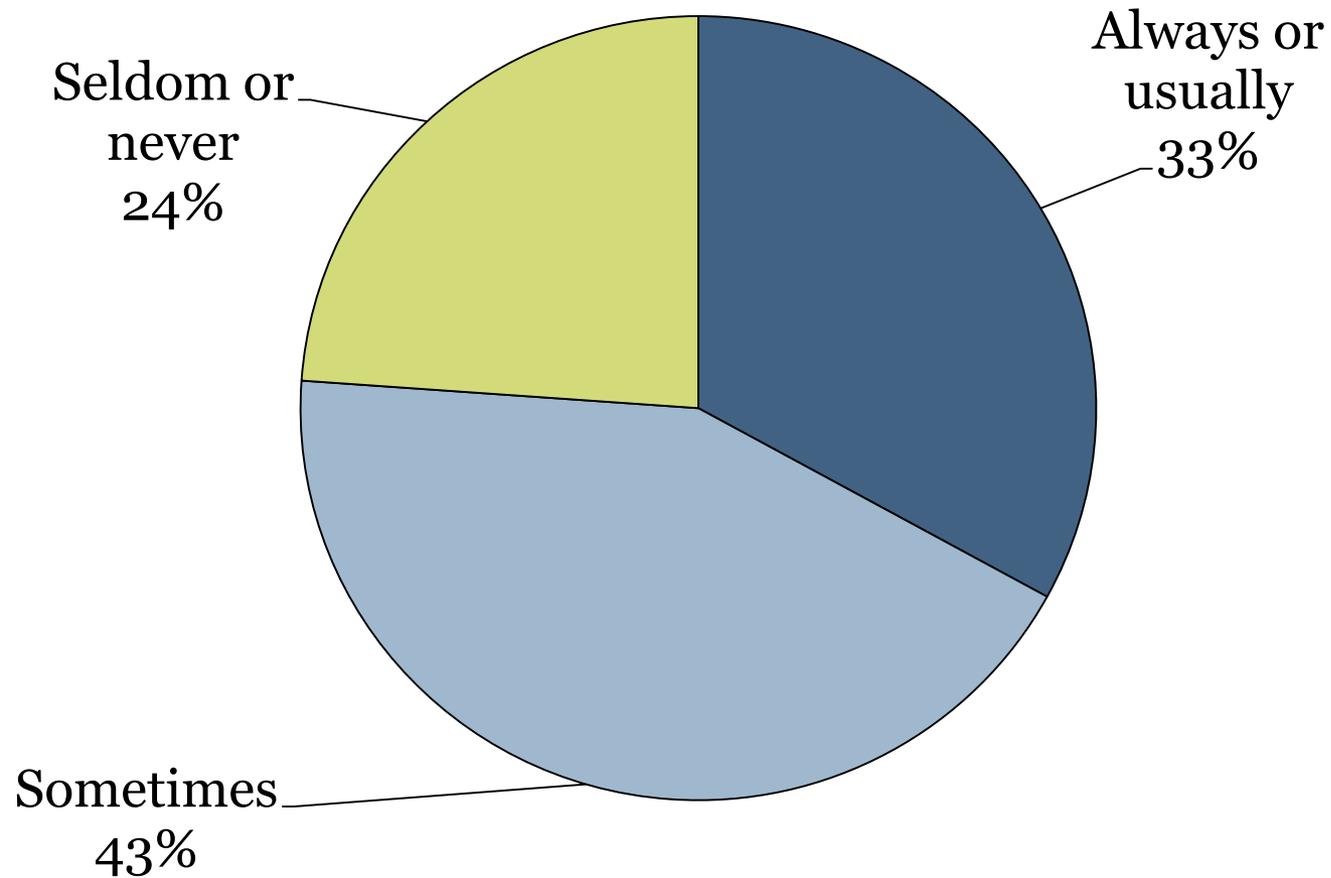

469 Respondents

If you (or family member) has a crisis and you need DDD services, do you know what to do?

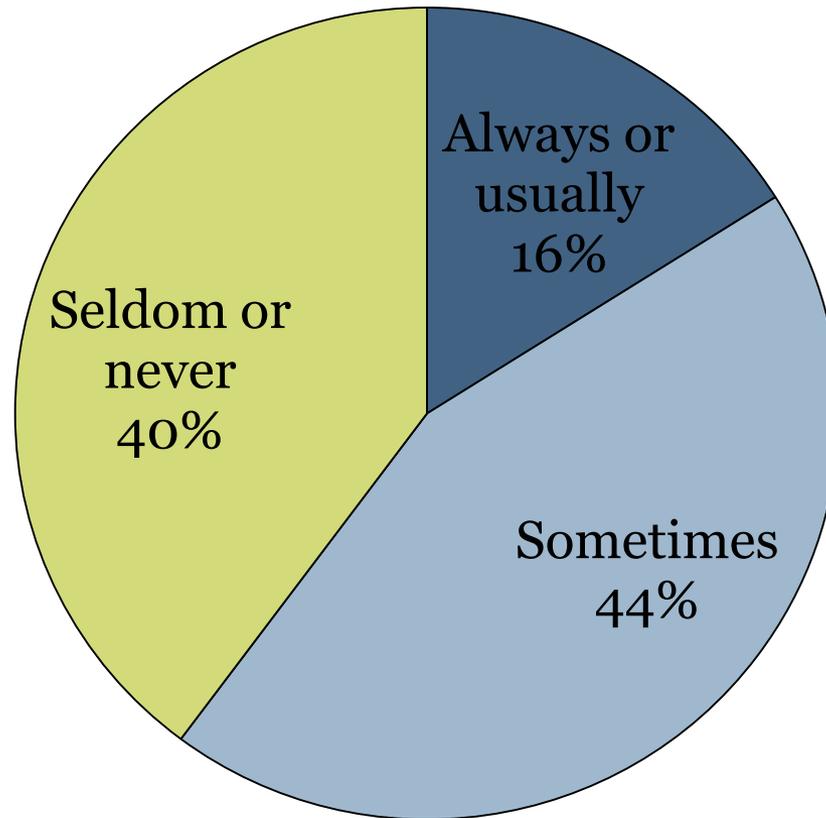

670 Respondents

Do you feel you (or your family member) has access to community activities?

Do you (does your family member) participate in community activities?

Household Income

Comparison: Core Indicators Child Family, NPS Survey & WA Census Data

- Core Indicators Child Family Survey
- No Paid Services Survey
- WA US Census Family Income Data

